

THE GAZETTE.
FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 21.

ANNAPOLIS was enlightened yesterday by a street shooting scene, in which a man and a woman were killed. The parties were John Mullavell and Mrs. Lannon, proprietress of the United States Hotel. At about quarter past nine o'clock they met on the street, and when about twenty feet apart, Mullavell fired upon Mrs. Lannon, who promptly drew and returned the fire, neither shot, however, taking effect. It is also alleged that the parties had been drinking the night before, during a "scolding" Lannon was beaten with an up, the shooting, a cut on the head. This "Justice Gassaway" have been the group, and made oath to the Mrs. Lannon, it was put upon $5,000, set after the street at court, and $2,000 to keep attack, "where the d-I I've been for the last three days."

A man in Portsmouth, N. H., having been missing for some weeks, to the great alarm of his friends, suddenly came home, and being asked where he had been, merely replied, "Darned if I know." He should do as did Salt Williams, of Detroit, who, having been on a three days' bender in New York, strolled into an intelligence office and asked, "Is this an intelligence office?" "Yes," said the keeper. "What's your fee?" inquired Salt, and upon being informed he threw down a dollar. "Well," asked the proprietor, "what information do you want?" "I want you to tell me," stammered Salt, "where the d-I I've been for the last three days."

A case in a Philadelphia Court lately developed another quaint regulation in force in the land of Penna, and this, in addition to the ordinary duty of a man to support his wife and children, if he have any, the law of Pennsylvania also requires that where a "poor person is not able to work," and has parents or grandparents, children or grandchildren, such ancestral progenitors or descendant posterity, as the case may be, "shall relieve and maintain such poor person" at the rate to be prescribed by the Court of Quarter Sessions.

FINE CIGARS—Just received another large invoice of very superior Cigars, and we respectfully solicit an inspection of our stock by all lovers of the weed. Included in the above is five thousand of our very popular five-cent Cigars, pronounced by many fully equal to any ten-cent cigar in the market. Also some genuine imported HAVANA CIGARS, and an assortment of very choice DOMESTIC CIGARS at 10c each, or 2 for 25c. We purchase our stock of Cigars in large quantities, thus allowing them time to become gradually seasoned on our shelves before offering them for sale, which, as all smokers know, adds greatly to their richness of flavor. Call and examine them, at 145 King st. mh 20 JANNY & CO.

HAIR DEPARTMENT.
